WHISKY LIST

WELCOME TO OUR WHISKY LIST

It may not surprise you to hear that we are big whisky fans here at The Glenturret. We don't just love our own whisky, but have a deep appreciation and genuine passion for all single malts. In curating this list, we really want to showcase some of Scotland's finest malts. Some of the whiskies that made our list are really iconic pours, others are just tremendous drams that represent the best releases from a particular distillery in recent times. We also dug deep into our own archives to present you with rare Glenturret through the ages - it really is a treat to see how our distillation has developed through the decades.

As in life, it is good to ask questions, and our bar team will be delighted to help you choose the right dram for you, answer your burning questions about whisky-making, or just help you find the best way to enjoy your dram. There are myriad options, but the only 'right' way to enjoy a dram is the one that gives you most pleasure

Slainte!
